Branen to Dears.—The woman Mrs. Ellen McFarland, be was burned on Sunday night at her residence, 216 att street, by her clothes catching fire from the stove, died at the New York Hospital yesterday, from the effects of the severe injuries received on the above evening. An inquest will be held on the body of the descended too day. The daughter of the deceased was, as will be remembered, arrested for setting her mether's clothes on fire, but there is no probability of establishing the charge. The daughter, Anne McManus, states that the deceased was intoxicated, and accidentally fell into the fire.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HUBSON RIVER.—A few days since an accident happened, on the Hudson river, to s.x men who were cressing on the ice alittle below Kingston, when the ice broke and they ware drowned. It appears from the evidence received at the Coroner's inquest that they started from the opposite side of the river. It had been thawing for the last two days, and it was thought by some that the lee would not bear them, but the others determined to go. They had not got a quarter of the way across before the ice works and they being together were all drowned. The bodies have since recovered, but they were not recognized

The Great Distribution Postponed.—The Cosmopolitan Art Association announce a brief postponement of the distribution, from the 36th of January, to the 28th of February next, at which time it will positively take place. The managers find it necessary to make the above change, owing to the delay in completing the building of the galleries, and the reception of works of art, which necessarily deformed the publishing of the flustrated catalogue until late in December, thereby preventing the general circulation desired among the distant Secretaries and friends of the Association. To all those who have not yet subscribed, the last opportunity is now presented. Any one subscribing revious to the 28th of February, will be entitled to the magazines for 1855. The payment of $5 entitles any person to any of the three doilar magazines for the year 1855. Subscriptions received at No. 2 Astor House, and at the Knickerbocker office, 348 Broadway, up stairs.

THE JESTITS IN OUR HONES.

A NOW.—BY HEARN DRU

The interest excited at the State capital by the appearance of this work hourly mereases. It is examined for the portraits of active and industrious men who have been busy in our political fields and away sing the season for harvesting. He sho wears a crown is said to have a thorny pillow, but our political ans cannot be much more blessed than monarchy, if this exposition of their stringgles for place and power be not exaggerated—as it is conceded it is poil. The political importance of the value of a vote is made very apparent in this remarkable volume. The mask is stripped from politicians, and the glass set up even for them to behold the stature of their own deformity. The political world is no longer a myth. A powerful hand has form away the veil, and she riddle which but few americans have ever attempted to expound for themselves is expounded—as some think by one of the very priests of the political altar. The figures thrown by this novelist upon the caivas, are boildy drawn, and the motives which actuate them are strongly depicted. This remarkable work is no riversely depicted.
